

Resumé: anglické

Catholic priest Franciscus Joseph Slama, forgotten personality of national revival.
1792-1844.

Francis Joseph Slama was excellent preacher, pious, well - educated and liberal priest, inflamed patriot, fertile writer, translator and humanitarian. He was one of priesthood which free speed in his incidence only on church, pulpit and parishioners, but who were adherent with life people, whereof arise and about whose national, economic and cultural sublimation pother by all the force and resources.

Pivotal notions:

Francis Joseph Slama
enlightenment
priest - patriot
writer
humanist